Federal Subsistence Board to Hold Work Session in Anchorage

The Federal Subsistence Board will hold a work session Thursday, April 16, 2015 beginning at 8:30 a.m. The work session will be held at the Bureau of Land Management's State Office in the Denali Room (4th Floor), located at 222 West 7th Avenue, in Anchorage. During the work session, the Board will discuss and take action on Kuskokwim and Yukon Fisheries Special Action Requests that have been received. The Board will also discuss Request for Reconsideration 14-01 regarding the Arctic Village Sheep Management Area closure for Red Sheep and Cane Creeks. Other business items may be discussed by the Board during this work session.

Throughout the session, there may be opportunities for the public to testify on both agenda and non-agenda items.

The full agenda and any available materials will be posted to the Federal Subsistence Management Program's website, www.doi.gov/subsistence/index.cfm, prior to this work session.

The public is welcome and encouraged to attend in person or by teleconference. To teleconference, dial 1-888-455-5897, then when prompted enter the passcode 3344290. If attending in person, photo identification, such as a driver's license, must be presented to building security.

The Federal Subsistence Board is committed to providing access to this work session for all participants. Please direct requests for sign language interpreting services, closed captioning, or other accommodation needs to the Office of Subsistence Management at (800) 478-1456 or (907) 786-3888 or by e-mail, subsistence@fws.gov by close of business on April 7.
